

SHAW MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

RIDES THREE WINNERS ON CLOSING DAY AT SARATOGA.

publin Finishes First in the Saratoga Handicap After Gruelling Race with Chucananda—First Whip Cheered for Game Victory in the Last Event.

SARATOGA, Aug. 29.—The twenty-two-day meeting of the Saratoga Racing Association ended this afternoon before a very large crowd. An attractive card was provided, including the Saratoga Handicap for three-year-olds worth $5,000, and well worth the journey alone. The track and Chucananda, who had the mount on Dublin, carried off the race at 2 to 1, but Dublin carrying a dog companion of Pittsburg Puff's, "closed the show" with a win.

Shaw, who had the mount on Dublin and Burns, the pilot of Chucananda, went to the front the moment the flag fell. In a few moments they left the other two starters, Baron Pepper and The Rhymer, six lengths behind and raced as if in a half-mile dash. Head and head they went around the turn and into the back stretch and the backers of each horse were shouting, "Give him a hand." They flew around the far turn and into the home stretch in the same way that they passed the stand. Their efforts were beginning to tell on them so that Baron Pepper and The Rhymer both began to close. Up to the last furlong it was an open race, as all were driving hard and close together. Then Dublin drew out and won, all out by a length and a half. Baron Pepper got up in time to beat Chucananda out a short distance.

The outside of this event Jockey Shaw was the main attraction, as he rode the winners in the first three races, and to 2 to 1 choice. Prince Alert was unbeatable to-day. First halves in 59 seconds and 100 told the tale. From the half Prince Alert had the "Snake" thoroughly strung out. McHenry was put behind Anaconda the third heat, but it was no purpose. Another big crowd was on hand; the weather was perfect and the track fine.

The free-for-all race was the first race called. Anaconda was the 2 to 1 choice, and the betting was well sustained at those odds.

Prince Alert drew the pole while Anaconda was on the outside.

Both were away flying.

Trout evidently was trying to take the pole if possible, but Curry was firmly determined that he should not have it. The pace was terrific. Prince Alert was the only one supported to any extent.

Speed went to the front in the stretch and led in a hard drive. Anaconda was in a pocket for a quarter of a mile up the backstretch and was also shut out, forcing Burns to lead.

Burns had the mount on Topaz in the second race, which was a handicap for two-year-olds and had a half furlong. Burns had the lead but was beaten off the front and stayed there, although he had to be ridden hard all the way home in order to win.

McHenry and Burns and geldings were starters in the fourth race in which Anna B. Hill was the favorite. Fontenot raced with Prince Alert, and chances were even when the latter drew out and won in a drive by a length from Rosecourt. Only three took part in the closing race with Ben Martin, who had the odd mount on the outside, serving the colors of O. Walburn, who had purchased him early in the day from Bruins & Co., for $100. Ben Martin did his best, but he had the race won, took matters easy in the stretch. First Whirl closed with a rush and won in a drive by three parts of a length over the others.
